Sentences with Could (possibility / ability)
I could help you.
He could solve the problem.
She could learn quickly.
They could join us.
We could go to Pune.
It could be easy.
This could be useful.
That could be a bug.
He could be late.
She could be happy.
I could try again.
We could finish early.
They could win the match.
It could rain today.
The book could help me.
The team could succeed.
The city could grow fast.
The server could crash.
The plan could change.
The day could be long.

- Sentences with Would (imaginary / polite / willingness)

I would like tea.
He would join us.
She would help me.
They would play cricket.
We would go to Nanded.
It would be simple.
This would be better.
That would be a task.
He would be happy.
She would be ready.
I would try again.
We would finish tomorrow.
They would win easily.
It would rain tomorrow.
The book would guide me.
The team would succeed.
The city would change.
The server would restart.
The plan would work.
The day would be bright.

- Sentences with Should (advice / obligation / expectation)

I should study now.
He should help her.
She should learn English.
They should join the meeting.
We should go home.
It should be fine.
This should be correct.
That should be a story.
He should be careful.
She should be confident.
I should try harder.
We should finish today.
They should practice daily.
It should rain tomorrow.

The book should explain well.
The team should prepare.
The city should improve.
The server should run fast.
The plan should succeed.
The day should be good.

- Extra Variety (names + developer context)

Deepak could learn Angular.
Deepak would join the demo.
Deepak should practice English.
Ramesh could fix the bug.
Ramesh would help the team.
Ramesh should attend the meeting.
Priya could write notes.
Priya would present tomorrow.
Priya should prepare slides.
The team could finish early.
The team would deliver on time.
The team should test properly.
The project could grow fast.
The project would succeed.
The project should be stable.
The server could crash.
The server would restart.
The server should run smoothly.
The city could expand.
The city would change.
The city should improve.
The book could help me.
The book would guide me.
The book should explain clearly.
The plan could fail.
The plan would work.
The plan should be strong.
The day could be long.
The day would be bright.
The day should be good.
The corner could be empty.
The corner would be full.
The corner should be clean.
The hall could be large.
The hall would be decorated.
The hall should be open.
The street could be busy.
The street would be quiet.
The street should be clean.
The office could be modern.
The office would be crowded.
The office should be neat.
The park could be green.
The park would be lively.
The park should be safe.
Sentences with Could Have (missed ability / possibility)
I could have helped you.
He could have solved the problem.
She could have learned faster.
They could have joined us.
We could have gone to Pune.

It could have been easy.
This could have been useful.
That could have been a bug.
He could have been late.
She could have been happy.
I could have tried again.
We could have finished early.
They could have won the match.
It could have rained today.
The book could have helped me.
The team could have succeeded.
The city could have grown fast.
The server could have crashed.
The plan could have changed.
The day could have been long.

- Sentences with Would Have (imaginary / polite / willingness in past)

I would have liked tea.
He would have joined us.
She would have helped me.
They would have played cricket.
We would have gone to Nanded.
It would have been simple.
This would have been better.
That would have been a task.
He would have been happy.
She would have been ready.
I would have tried again.
We would have finished tomorrow.
They would have won easily.
It would have rained yesterday.
The book would have guided me.
The team would have succeeded.
The city would have changed.
The server would have restarted.
The plan would have worked.
The day would have been bright.

- Sentences with Should Have (advice / regret / expectation)

I should have studied.
He should have helped her.
She should have learned English.
They should have joined the meeting.
We should have gone home.
It should have been fine.
This should have been correct.
That should have been a story.
He should have been careful.
She should have been confident.
I should have tried harder.
We should have finished today.
They should have practiced daily.
It should have rained yesterday.
The book should have explained well.
The team should have prepared.
The city should have improved.
The server should have run fast.
The plan should have succeeded.
The day should have been good.

- Extra Variety (names + developer context)

Deepak could have learned Angular earlier.
Deepak would have joined the demo.
Deepak should have practiced English daily.
Ramesh could have fixed the bug.
Ramesh would have helped the team.
Ramesh should have attended the meeting.
Priya could have written notes.
Priya would have presented yesterday.
Priya should have prepared slides.
The team could have finished early.
The team would have delivered on time.
The team should have tested properly.
The project could have grown faster.
The project would have succeeded.
The project should have been stable.
The server could have crashed.
The server would have restarted.
The server should have run smoothly.
The city could have expanded.
The city would have changed.
The city should have improved.
The book could have helped me.
The book would have guided me.
The book should have explained clearly.
The plan could have failed.
The plan would have worked.
Sentences with May
I may go to Pune.
He may join us.
She may learn English.
They may play cricket.
We may attend the meeting.
It may rain today.
This may help me.
That may be true.
He may be late.
She may be happy.

- Sentences with May Be

I may be busy.
He may be tired.
She may be confident.
They may be ready.
We may be in Nanded.
It may be simple.
This may be useful.
That may be a bug.
The server may be slow.
The day may be long.

- Sentences with May Have

I may have lost my pen.
He may have missed the bus.
She may have forgotten the book.
They may have completed the task.
We may have finished early.
It may have rained yesterday.
This may have helped me.

That may have been a mistake.
The server may have crashed.
The plan may have changed.

- Sentences with Might

I might go home.
He might join us.
She might help me.
They might play football.
We might attend the demo.
It might rain tomorrow.
This might be better.
That might be a task.
He might be late.
She might be ready.

- Sentences with Might Be

I might be busy.
He might be tired.
She might be confident.
They might be happy.
We might be in Pune.
It might be easy.
This might be correct.
That might be a bug.
The server might be down.
The day might be bright.

- Sentences with Might Have

I might have lost my key.
He might have missed the train.
She might have forgotten the homework.
They might have completed the project.
We might have finished yesterday.
It might have rained last night.
This might have helped me.
That might have been wrong.
The server might have failed.
The plan might have worked.

- Sentences with Must

I must study now.
He must help her.
She must learn English.
They must join the meeting.
We must go home.
It must be correct.
This must be true.
That must be a bug.
He must be careful.
She must be confident.

- Sentences with Must Be

I must be ready.
He must be tired.
She must be happy.
They must be strong.
We must be in Nanded.
It must be simple.
This must be useful.
That must be a story.
The server must be running.

The day must be good.

- Sentences with Must Have

I must have lost my book.
He must have missed the call.
She must have forgotten the task.
They must have completed the sprint.
We must have finished the work.
It must have rained yesterday.
This must have helped me.
That must have been correct.
The server must have crashed.
The plan must have succeeded.

- Extra Variety (names + developer context)

Deepak may learn Angular.
Deepak may be busy today.
Deepak may have finished the demo.
Ramesh might join the meeting.
Ramesh might be late.
Ramesh might have fixed the bug.
Priya must attend the training.
Priya must be confident.
Priya must have prepared the slides.
The team may succeed.
The team might be strong.
The team must have tested properly.
The project may grow.
The project might be stable.
The project must have been completed.
Present (am / is / are + going to)
I am going to study.
I am going to learn English.
I am going to write notes.
I am going to read a book.
I am going to practice daily.
He is going to help me.
He is going to join the meeting.
He is going to play cricket.
He is going to read stories.
He is going to speak English.
She is going to cook food.
She is going to sing a song.
She is going to prepare slides.
She is going to attend class.
She is going to learn grammar.
We are going to study together.
We are going to play football.
We are going to read newspapers.
We are going to write homework.
We are going to speak clearly.
They are going to watch a movie.
They are going to play games.
They are going to read books.
They are going to write letters.
They are going to walk slowly.

- Past (was / were + going to)

I was going to study yesterday.
I was going to learn English last week.

I was going to write notes yesterday.
I was going to read a book last night.
I was going to practice daily.
He was going to help me yesterday.
He was going to join the meeting.
He was going to play cricket.
He was going to read stories.
He was going to speak English.
She was going to cook food yesterday.
She was going to sing a song.
She was going to prepare slides.
She was going to attend class.
She was going to learn grammar.
We were going to study together.
We were going to play football.
We were going to read newspapers.
We were going to write homework.
We were going to speak clearly.
They were going to watch a movie.
They were going to play games.
They were going to read books.
They were going to write letters.
They were going to walk slowly.

- Future (will be + going to → emphasis on intention)

I am going to study tomorrow.
I am going to learn English next week.
I am going to write notes tomorrow.
I am going to read a book tonight.
I am going to practice daily.
He is going to help me tomorrow.
He is going to join the meeting next week.
He is going to play cricket tomorrow.
He is going to read stories tonight.
He is going to speak English tomorrow.
She is going to cook food tomorrow.
She is going to sing a song tonight.
She is going to prepare slides tomorrow.
She is going to attend class next week.
She is going to learn grammar tomorrow.
We are going to study together tomorrow.
We are going to play football tomorrow.
We are going to read newspapers tomorrow.
We are going to write homework tomorrow.
We are going to speak clearly tomorrow.
They are going to watch a movie tomorrow.
They are going to play games tomorrow.
They are going to read books tomorrow.
They are going to write letters tomorrow.
They are going to walk slowly tomorrow.

- Extra Variety (names + developer context)

Deepak is going to learn Angular.
Deepak was going to practice English yesterday.
Deepak is going to attend the demo tomorrow.
Ramesh is going to fix the bug.
Ramesh was going to join the meeting.
Ramesh is going to prepare slides.
Priya is going to write notes.

Priya was going to present yesterday.
Priya is going to attend training tomorrow.
The team is going to finish the sprint.
The team was going to deliver yesterday.
The team is going to test properly.
The project is going to grow fast.
The project was going to succeed last month.
The project is going to be stable.
The server is going to restart.
The server was going to crash yesterday.
The server is going to run smoothly.
The city is going to expand.
The city was going to change last year.
The city is going to improve.
The book is going to help me.
The book was going to guide me.
The book is going to explain clearly.
The plan is going to work.
The plan was going to fail yesterday.
The plan is going to be strong.
The day is going to be bright.
The day was going to be long.
The day is going to be good.
Present (have to / has to)
I have to study.
I have to learn English.
I have to write notes.
I have to read a book.
I have to practice daily.
He has to help me.
He has to join the meeting.
He has to play cricket.
He has to read stories.
He has to speak English.
She has to cook food.
She has to sing a song.
She has to prepare slides.
She has to attend class.
She has to learn grammar.
We have to study together.
We have to play football.
We have to read newspapers.
We have to write homework.
We have to speak clearly.
They have to watch a movie.
They have to play games.
They have to read books.
They have to write letters.
They have to walk slowly.

- Past (had to)

I had to study yesterday.
I had to learn English last week.
I had to write notes yesterday.
I had to read a book last night.
I had to practice daily.
He had to help me yesterday.
He had to join the meeting.
He had to play cricket.

He had to read stories.
He had to speak English.
She had to cook food yesterday.
She had to sing a song.
She had to prepare slides.
She had to attend class.
She had to learn grammar.
We had to study together.
We had to play football.
We had to read newspapers.
We had to write homework.
We had to speak clearly.
They had to watch a movie.
They had to play games.
They had to read books.
They had to write letters.
They had to walk slowly.

- Future (will have to)

I will have to study tomorrow.
I will have to learn English next week.
I will have to write notes tomorrow.
I will have to read a book tonight.
I will have to practice daily.
He will have to help me tomorrow.
He will have to join the meeting next week.
He will have to play cricket tomorrow.
He will have to read stories tonight.
He will have to speak English tomorrow.
She will have to cook food tomorrow.
She will have to sing a song tonight.
She will have to prepare slides tomorrow.
She will have to attend class next week.
She will have to learn grammar tomorrow.
We will have to study together tomorrow.
We will have to play football tomorrow.
We will have to read newspapers tomorrow.
We will have to write homework tomorrow.
We will have to speak clearly tomorrow.
They will have to watch a movie tomorrow.
They will have to play games tomorrow.
They will have to read books tomorrow.
They will have to write letters tomorrow.
They will have to walk slowly tomorrow.

- Extra Variety (names + developer context)

Deepak has to practice English daily.
Deepak had to attend the demo yesterday.
Deepak will have to learn Angular.
Ramesh has to fix the bug.
Ramesh had to join the meeting.
Ramesh will have to prepare slides.
Priya has to write notes.
Priya had to present yesterday.
Priya will have to attend training tomorrow.
The team has to finish the sprint.
The team had to deliver yesterday.
The team will have to test properly.
The project has to grow fast.

The project had to succeed last month.
The project will have to be stable.
The server has to restart.
The server had to crash yesterday.
The server will have to run smoothly.
The city has to expand.
The city had to change last year.
The city will have to improve.
The book has to help me.
The book had to guide me.
The book will have to explain clearly.
The plan has to work.
The plan had to fail yesterday.
The plan will have to be strong.
The day has to be bright.
The day had to be long.
The day will have to be good.

What Questions (काय)
What is your name? → तुमचं नाव काय आहे?
What is this? → हे काय आहे?
What is your favorite color? → तुमचा आवडता रंग कोणता आहे?
What is your hobby? → तुमचा छंद काय आहे?
What is your job? → तुमचं काम काय आहे?
What is the time now? → आत्ता किती वाजले आहेत?
What is your father's name? → तुमच्या वडिलांचं नाव काय आहे?
What is your mother's name? → तुमच्या आईचं नाव काय आहे?
What is your school name? → तुमच्या शाळेचं नाव काय आहे?
What is your city? → तुमचं शहर कोणतं आहे? 🔹
Where Questions (कोठे / कुठे)
Where are you? → तुम्ही कुठे आहात?
Where is your home? → तुमचं घर कुठे आहे?
Where is the bus stop? → बस थांबा कुठे आहे?
Where is the market? → बाजार कुठे आहे?
Where is the station? → स्टेशन कुठे आहे?
Where is your office? → तुमचं ऑफिस कुठे आहे?
Where is your school? → तुमची शाळा कुठे आहे?
Where is your friend? → तुमचा मित्र कुठे आहे?
Where is the park? → बाग कुठे आहे?
Where is the hospital? → हॉस्पिटल कुठे आहे? 🔹
When Questions (कधी)
When is your birthday? → तुमचा वाढदिवस कधी आहे?
When is the meeting? → मिटिंग कधी आहे?
When is the exam? → परीक्षा कधी आहे?
When is the train? → गाडी कधी आहे?
When is the bus? → बस कधी आहे?
When is the holiday? → सुट्टी कधी आहे?
When is the festival? → सण कधी आहे?
When is lunch? → जेवण कधी आहे?
When is dinner? → रात्रीचं जेवण कधी आहे?
When is the program? → कार्यक्रम कधी आहे? 🔹
Why Questions (का)

Why are you late? → तुम्ही उशिरा का आलात?
Why are you sad? → तुम्ही दुःखी का आहात?
Why are you happy? → तुम्ही आनंदी का आहात?
Why are you angry? → तुम्ही रागावलेले का आहात?
Why are you crying? → तुम्ही रडत का आहात?
Why are you laughing? → तुम्ही हसत का आहात?
Why are you here? → तुम्ही इथे का आहात?
Why are you studying? → तुम्ही अभ्यास का करत आहात?
Why are you working? → तुम्ही काम का करत आहात?
Why are you waiting? → तुम्ही थांबलेले का आहात? 🔹
Who Questions (कोण)
Who are you? → तुम्ही कोण आहात?
Who is your teacher? → तुमचे शिक्षक कोण आहेत?
Who is your friend? → तुमचा मित्र कोण आहे?
Who is your father? → तुमचे वडील कोण आहेत?
Who is your mother? → तुमची आई कोण आहे?
Who is your brother? → तुमचा भाऊ कोण आहे?
Who is your sister? → तुमची बहीण कोण आहे?
Who is your boss? → तुमचे बॉस कोण आहेत?
Who is your doctor? → तुमचे डॉक्टर कोण आहेत?
Who is your neighbor? → तुमचे शेजारी कोण आहेत? 🔹
Whose Questions (कोणाचे)
Whose book is this? → हे पुस्तक कोणाचे आहे?
Whose pen is this? → ही पेन कोणाची आहे?
Whose bag is this? → ही बॅग कोणाची आहे?
Whose house is this? → हे घर कोणाचे आहे?
Whose car is this? → ही गाडी कोणाची आहे?
Whose phone is this? → हा फोन कोणाचा आहे?
Whose shoes are these? → हे बूट कोणाचे आहेत?
Whose laptop is this? → हा लॅपटॉप कोणाचा आहे?
Whose chair is this? → ही खुर्ची कोणाची आहे?
Whose table is this? → ही टेबल कोणाची आहे? 🔹
Which Questions (कोणता / कोणती)
Which color do you like? → तुम्हाला कोणता रंग आवडतो?
Which book do you read? → तुम्ही कोणते पुस्तक वाचता?
Which pen do you use? → तुम्ही कोणती पेन वापरता?
Which bag is yours? → तुमची बॅग कोणती आहे?
Which car is yours? → तुमची गाडी कोणती आहे?
Which subject do you study? → तुम्ही कोणता विषय शिकता?
Which food do you eat? → तुम्ही कोणते जेवण करता?
Which place do you visit? → तुम्ही कोणती जागा भेट देता?
Which movie do you watch? → तुम्ही कोणता चित्रपट पाहता?
Which song do you sing? → तुम्ही कोणते गाणं गाता? 🔹
How Questions (कसे / कशी / किती)
How are you? → तुम्ही कसे आहात?
How is your father? → तुमचे वडील कसे आहेत?
How is your mother? → तुमची आई कशी आहे?
How is your friend? → तुमचा मित्र कसा आहे?
How is your teacher? → तुमचे शिक्षक कसे आहेत?

How is your health? → तुमचं आरोग्य कसं आहे?
How is the weather? → हवामान कसं आहे?
How is the food? → जेवण कसं आहे?
How is the movie? → चित्रपट कसा आहे?
How is the program? → कार्यक्रम कसा आहे?

- Extended How (किती / किती वेळ / किती अंतर)

How much is this? → हे किती आहे?
How many books do you have? → तुमच्याकडे किती पुस्तके आहेत?
How long will it take? → किती वेळ लागेल?
How far is Pune from Nanded? → पुणे नांदेडपासून किती दूर आहे?
How often do you study? → तुम्ही किती वेळा अभ्यास करता?
How old are you? → तुमचं वय किती आहे?
How tall are you? → तुम्ही किती उंच आहात?
How big is the room? → खोली किती मोठी आहे?
How small is the bag? → बॅग किती लहान आहे?
How fast is the car? → गाडी किती वेगवान आहे?